

Coach Wyatt is a passionate USA Baseball C-Certified coach, experienced leader, and continuing student of the game. He has more than 35 seasons of combined playing experience and over 10 years of experience as a baseball umpire.

As a native of the Shenandoah Valley's Harrisonburg, VA, Coach Wyatt has spent multiple seasons in dugouts and locker rooms as a batboy for the James Madison University Dukes baseball team (NCAA Division-I CAA) and complements that time with his own college pitching / hitting experience at the NCBA Division-II level. During high school, Coach Wyatt was an accomplished Virginia AAAA multi-sport athlete (lettering in Baseball Football, Swimming, and Golf). Coach Wyatt attended Senior Military College at the Virginia Military institute where he was a drill instructor and naval midshipman. Coach Wyatt uses his diverse background, unique education as a leader, and passion for the game of baseball to emphasize integrity, attention to detail, and devotion on and off the field in order to grow his players as teammates and people throughout life.

Tucker Wyatt

COMMONPOINT
QUEENS
Community happens here

